

The Diamond Model offers a coeducational Preparatory School, single-sex education in the Senior School and a coeducational Sixth Form

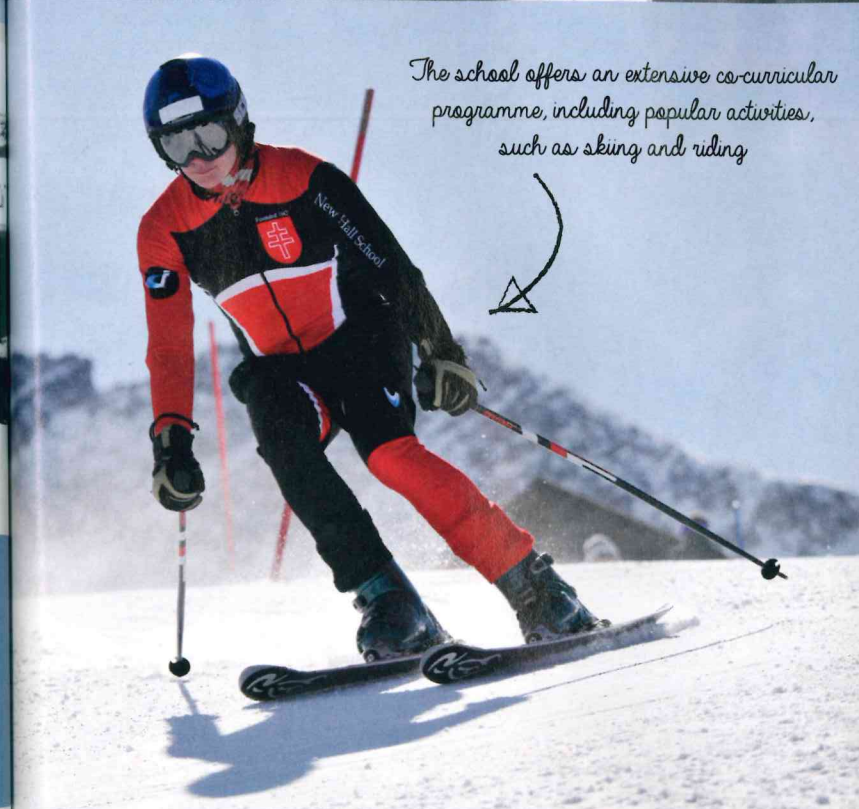

The former convent school retains its Catholic foundation and ethos while welcoming those of all backgrounds

Henry VIII's coat of arms is still prominently displayed in the school chapel

Bomb damage to New Hall during the Second World War meant the school had to be evacuated to Newham Paddock, near Rugby, in 1943

The school offers an extensive co-curricular programme, including popular activities, such as skiing and riding

New Hall is the oldest Catholic school in England and has always taken girls

A HISTORY OF NEW HALL, ESSEX in 10 pictures

ol site is located in the stunning of Beaulieu Palace, which quired by King Henry VIII in 1517

Boys were introduced to the historically all-girls' school in 2006

Tablets were introduced for all students and teachers from September 2016